

git usage

git command	action
git status	view modified, added, deleted, and renamed files git diff	diff output of changes git add <file> git rm <file> git mv <oldfile> <newfile>  example: git add src/argument_parser.c git mv parser.c parsing.c	stage files for add, removal, or rename git commit -m'<message>'  example: git commit -m'implemented parsing'	commit staged changes to the current branch git branch <name>	create a new branch git checkout <name> example: git checkout server  git checkout <file> example: git checkout src/argument_parser.c	switch to another branch  OR  revert changes to a file git fetch	grab all new commits from the origin repository git merge <branch>  example: git merge origin/master	merge new commits from the named branch onto the current branch

Local Operations

excellent reference sites

<http://gitref.org/basic/>

<http://learn.github.com/p/normal.html>

images courtesy github